

Unity Is Strength

Once there were two bulls. They lived together happily on a farm. They were very good friends. No animal dared to go near them. The bulls would fight back any attack together. Even the lion did not have the courage to go near them.

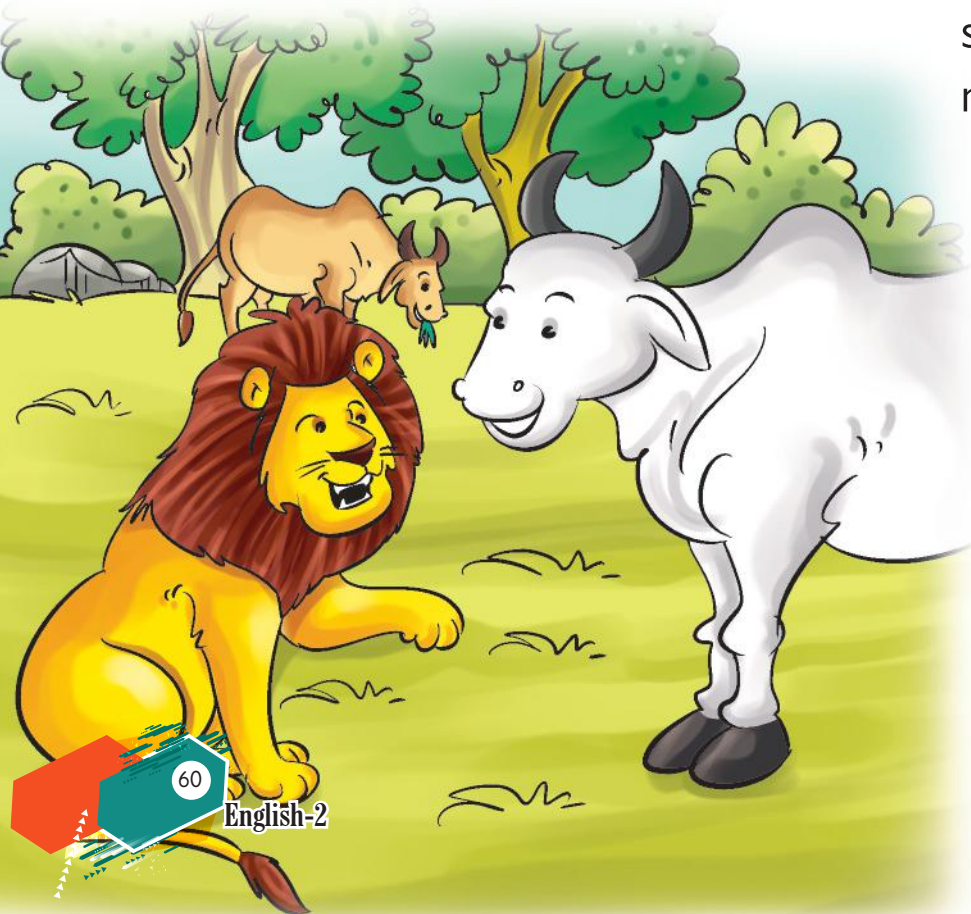

Once the lion thought of a plan. He went to one bull and said, “Your friend is eating more grass than you. Oh, what a pity!”

The lion told the same thing to the another bull. Both the bulls no longer trusted one another. So they started going to the field alone.

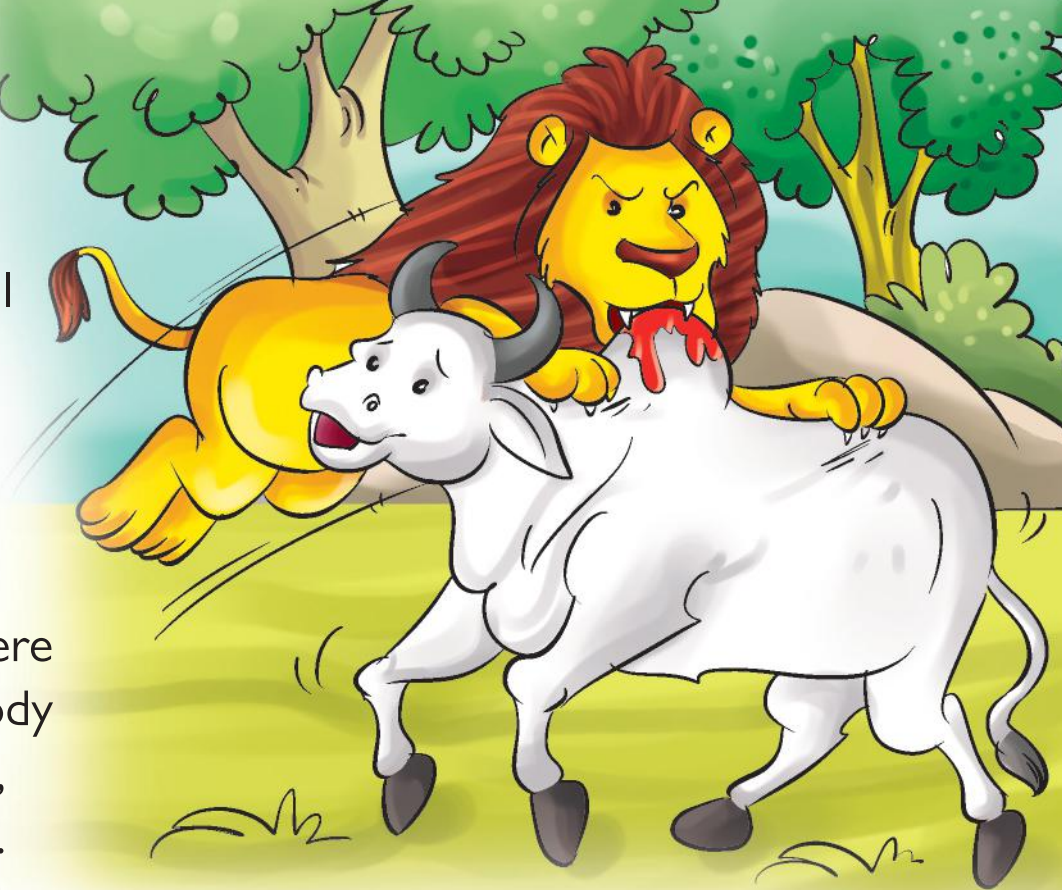

One day one bull was eating grass all alone. The lion sprang upon the bull, killed him and ate him up. The other bull did not go to his help.

After few days, the lion killed the second bull and ate him up too.

Together the bulls were strong and safe. Nobody could harm them. Alone, the bulls were weak. Thus, it is said that unity is strength.
